

SACEP RETREAT 2 – 3 September 2022

Swiss Archdeaconry Christian Education Programme

TOPIC: Christian Ethics

John writes: "We need to recognise the source of our humanity – a Creator God – and the impact this must have on our perception of humanity in the context of constant medical and scientific advancements." Through clinical experience, John became increasingly aware of the ethical maelstrom caused by advancing technology and contentious debates about the nature of humanity at the beginning and end of life.
